

Vadodara school bags TCS IT wiz award

AHMEDABAD MIRROR
BUREAU

The students of Vadodara's Navrachna School, Purab Surana and Pratham Parikh won the inter-school TCS IT wiz competition at Tagore Hall on Monday. The students of Maharaja Agrasen, Nayan Goyal and Rima Rana, were runners-up.

Former wicketkeeper of Indian team and chief guest on the occasion Kiran More presented the awards to the winners of the quiz contest. The winners were also presented with a laptop while the runners up received a portable DVD player and a digital camera apart from the trophy. The auditorium was full to its capacity. Amrit Jyoti, DPS and Maharaja Agrasen and St Kabir

PH: JIGNESH VORA

Chief guest Kiran More with the winners Purab Surana and Pratham Parikh of Navrachna School, Vadodara from the city and Navrachna and Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan from Vadodara made it to the semi finals. Each team had two students from class VIII to

XII. TCS Ahmedabad head Jayanta Banerjee said: "Why should we worry for economic slowdown when the future of our country is so bright?"