several rounds such as Screenager, Cryptology, Morphin, @TCS and Wapplets. These rounds focused on challenging the participants with crosswords, cryptic clues and visuals. The quiz was open to students studying in class 8-12 and out of the 600 teams that participated only six teams — St Kabir, Amrut Jyoti, DPS, Navrachna, BVB and Maharaja Agrasen — made it to the final round. Contemporary formats and interactive style of quizzing by the quizmaster Giri Balsubramanium, popularly known as 'Pickbrain', made the event even more interesting.

Purvabh Surana and Pratham Parekh of Navrachna School, Vadodara, bagged first place and were awarded with the winner's trophy and laptops. Maharaja Agrasen stood second. Former Indian cricketer Kiran More was the chief guest for the event along with Jayanta Banerjee, head, TCS Ahmedabad.
