

Pokhariput DAV wins TCS IT Wiz

Pioneer News Service | Bhubaneswar

In the TCS IT Wiz 2008 conducted by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) here on Saturday, Aurojyoti Das and Ambarish Sarangi of Pokhariput DAV Public School won the trophy along with a laptop each. Students of Loyola School Akash Mishra and Abhay Nayak won the runners up trophy along with a portable DVD player and digital camera each.

The company got an overwhelming response in the competition as the auditorium was packed with over 1,000 participating students of the city. To mark the 10th anniversary of the TCS IT Wiz, CEO and MD Ramadorai launched a website www.tcsitwiz.com recently. Prizes were distributed by chief guest Vishal Dev, CEO of Orissa Computer Application Centre and branch head of TCS Manoj Panda.
