

PSBB students take the cake in IT quiz

NT Bureau

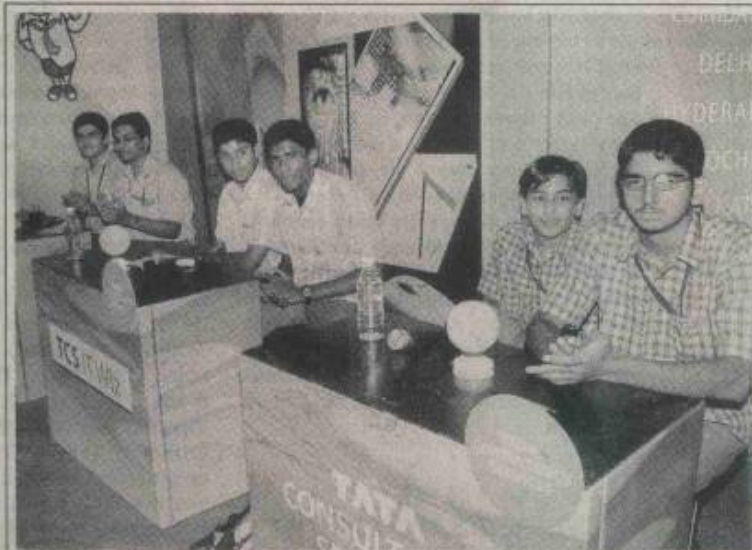

Chennai, Aug 23:

Padma Seshadhri Bala Bhavan School has won the Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) 'IT Wiz 2008', a quiz competition, held for school children in Chennai on Thursday.

After the preliminary rounds, six schools were selected for the finals. The extremely high-level of competition among the six teams on stage, the innovative format of the rounds, and the interactive style of quizmaster Giri Balasubramaniam made the event engrossing.

Keeping pace with the changing trends in information technology, the quiz had several mind-boggling rounds like Screenager, Cryptology, Viosk, Morphing and Wapplets.

At the end of the sixth round, PSBB School students K Swarun Krishna and R Sai Krishnan won the title Quiz Wiz 2008 and walked away with laptops. The runners-up were Rishabh Nagendra and S Srihari of Vidhya Mandir School who got a digi-

School students participating in the TCS IT Quiz which was held in Chennai on Thursday.

tal camera and a portable DVD player. Prizes were distributed by former Indian cricket player and national selector V B Chandrasekhar. Many students and employees of TCS were present on the occasion