

TCS organises IT Wiz

Pioneer News Service | Lucknow

The Lucknow edition of the TCS IT Wiz conducted by the Tata Consultancy Service was held at Ravindralaya auditorium on Saturday.

Over 1200 students from schools of Lucknow, Dehradun, Kanpur, Nainital, Faizabad, Gorakhpur and Varanasi participated in this year's Lucknow edition.

The students from Hua Yi Secondary School, Singapore, also participated in this year's event.

The winners trophy was bagged by Utkarsh Mishra and Akash Tiwari of Lucknow Public School while Dushyant Dhyani and Prateek Bansal of Summer Valley School, Dehradun, got the runners-up trophy.

The winners were given a lap top each while runners-up walked away with portable DVD player and digital camera.

The six teams which made it to the regional finals received a back pack, MP3 player, headphones, coffee table books and t-shirts from TCS, besides gift vouchers from leading hotels in the city.

Quiz master Giri Balasubramaniam firing questions at the TCS IT Wiz on Saturday

Pioneer

The prizes were given away by Principal Secretary, Secondary Education, Arun Kumar Mishra, Vice-Chancellor, UP Technical University, Prem Vrat along with Jayant Krishna, head of TCS Lucknow.

The regional final was between six teams which were selected after written prelims.

The quiz master was Giri Balasubramaniam aka 'Pickbrain.' The quiz, which was open to school students studying from class 8-12, had several rounds.

The Screenager round was on Information

Technology happenings across the globe, Cryptology was a crossword round with cryptic clues, Viosk was a visual round, Morphing round was with multiple clues, @TCS round was based on TCS and Wapplets round was on speed of reaction and recall.