

The Times of India, Lucknow, Nov 01 2008

Quiz to tickle brains of young

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) will be holding their nationwide IT Wiz quiz for schools in Uttar Pradesh and Utrakhand.

Informing media persons about the quiz, principal consultant and regional manager, TCS, Jayant Krishna said that the Lucknow edition of the TCS IT Wiz will be held on November 8 at Ravindralaya, near the Charbagh railway station.

The competition is open to students studying from class 8 to 12. There is no entry fee but only the first 600 teams that register will be allowed to participate.

Out of this 510 have already registered. The winners will walk away with laptops and the runners up will be rewarded with digital cameras and portable DVD players with screens.