

Deccan Herald, Bangalore, July 30 2009

ACHIEVERS Tata Consultancy Service wiz 2009 Bangalore edition winners Rishab Mehta, Manish Buman (Bishop Cotton Boys school) and runners-up Rohan Mehta, Sonal Saldanha (St. Joseph's Boys High school) at Chowdiah Memorial Hall in Bangalore on Wednesday. DH photo

Bishop Cottons wins TCS quiz

BANGALORE: The Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) organised its annual 11th inter-school quiz competition 'IT Wiz 2009' here on Wednesday.

Held at the Chowdiah Memorial Hall, more than 500 students from standard 8 to 12, took part in the quiz.

After some high level quizzing and a closely fought final, Rishab Mehta and Manish Burman from Bishop Cotton Boy's School walked away with the coveted winners trophy, along with a laptop each, closely followed by Rohan Mehta and Sonal Saldanha from St Joseph's Boys High School as runners-up who received their trophy along with a digital camera and digital photo frame.

Changing trends

Keeping pace with the changing trends in information technology, the quiz had several mind-bending rounds, viz Twit-tering - which had topics from IT happenings across the globe. The quiz competition focused on application of IT across various sectors such as world of internet and intranet and unique web sites, IT buzzwords and acronyms, IT personalia - international, national and local, advertisements of IT and communication companies, software products and their brands.

DH News Service