

IT's quiz time

TECH TALK

Bishop Cotton Boys' School wins the first prize in the TCS IT Wiz 2009

THE TCS IT Wiz, India's largest inter-school IT Quiz conducted by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), received an overwhelming response in the city. It was a packed auditorium with more than 1,200 students in Bangalore participating in this year's edition of the TCS IT Wiz - which was conducted at Chowdiah Memorial Hall.

After some high-level quizzing and a closely fought final, Rishab Mehta and Manish Burman from Bishop Cotton Boys' School walked away with the winners trophy, along with a laptop each, closely followed by Rohan Mehta and Sonal Saldanha from St Joseph's Boys High School as runners-up who received their trophy along with a digital camera and digital photo frame.

Prizes were distributed by the Chief Guest, Sudhakar Rao, Chief Secretary, the Government of Karnataka.

The six teams which made it to the regional finals after the written prelims received a travel bag, MP3 players, watches, coffee table books, coffee mugs and T-shirts from TCS, besides gift vouchers from leading hotels in the city. Lenovo and Croma had also sponsored prizes for the event this year.

Express Features

✉ bngexpresso@epmlltd.com