Jain College students emerge champions

BANGALORE, DHNS: The Bangalore edition of the TCS IT Wiz 2010, organised on Thursday saw Udbhav Tiwari and Radhika Radhakrishnan from Sri Bhagwan Mahaveer Jain PU College bag the first prize and Milind Hegde and Vikas Kashyap from Sri Kumaran Children's Home CBSE School take home the second prize.

Elated champions

While the first prize winners took home a laptop and a trophy each besides a dinner with TCS Managing Director and CEO N Chandrasekaran, the runners up walked away with a pair of netbooks and trophies.

The six regional finalists won an array of prizes ranging from backpacks, MP3 players, headphones, T-shirts and water sippers. Over 1,000 students from various schools participated in the event, which had six rounds including automatic computing, cloud computing, parallel computing, grid computing etc.

Addressing the event Lokayukta N Santosh Hegde said that there is a growing need for children to get educated about corruption at different sections of society.
