

My generation has failed: Hegde

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bangalore: Admitting that his generation has failed to stop corruption, Lokayukta Justice N Santosh Hegde on Thursday asked youngsters to build a society free of maladministration.

CURBING CORRUPTION

Speaking at the TCS IT Wiz 2010 tech quiz, Justice Hegde said: "I don't understand much about computer science, but IT knowledge among the younger generation amazes me. I have visited over 169 educational institutions just to convey to students to fight maladministration and corruption. My generation has failed to do it. So, it's the responsibility of this generation to do it. It's important for students to learn to enjoy success within the purview of law."

Syed Asif

WINNING SMILE: Udbhav Tiwari and Radhika Radhakrishnan, who won the TCS IT Wiz 2010 tech quiz in Bangalore on Thursday

Over 700 students from 119 schools participated in the quiz held at Chowdiah Memorial Hall. The winning team from Bangalore will compete with teams selected from 12 regional rounds at the finals, to be held in December for the TCS IT Wiz National Champions Title.

WINNERS ALL

Udbhav Tiwari and Radhika Radhakrishnan, Sri Bhagwan Mahaveer Jain PU College, qualified for the national finals and walked away with the coveted winners trophy, along with a laptop each.

Runners-up: Milind Hegde and Vikas Kashyap, Sri Kumaran Children Home CBSE School, received a trophy along with netbooks.