

ORISSA
DIARY

Shankar Waman Rajad and Purushottam Singh of I.I.T. Junior College lift the winners' trophy at the ICMT'10 in Bhubaneswar on Monday. (Telegraph photo)

Tech quiz receives huge response

BHUBANESHWAR: The ICMT'10 quiz, a test quiz for schools, received an overwhelming response with hundreds of students lining up for the event on Monday. Following a session of intense questioning, Shankar Waman Rajad and Purushottam Singh of I.I.T. Junior College walked away with the winners' trophy and qualified for the national finals to be held in December. Arijit Mishra and Chintan Datta of the Mother's Public School were the runners-up.

The quiz included an 'innovative round' that required the knowledge of the connectivity on the IT world and the changes that have taken place. The 'visual round' round proved to be quite interesting. The quiz also included a round on the changes that have taken place in the world of technology that touches lives. The round titled 'IT' focused on the status of the Indian IT industry and a rapid pace from the world of IT.