THE TCS IT Wiz 2010 edition, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), received record participation in Kochi. It was a packed auditorium with over 890 students participating in the prelims of TCS IT Wiz.

After the crisp prelims and some gruelling and intense round of quizzing, Bony Sabu and Tomson George of St Joseph's Higher Secondary School,

Paingattoor, walked away with the coveted winners trophy, along with a ThinkPad Lenovo laptop each, closely followed by Joel Jacob and Eary M Jose from Girideepam Bethany Central School, Kottayam, as runners-up who received their trophy along with an IdeaPad Netbook. Ajay Kumar, Principal Secretary, Information Technology Department, who was the chief guest on the occasion, distributed the prizes along with Siddhartha Bhattacharya, chief executive officer, Infospark, Kochi.

Also present were TCS top executives, including Santhosh C Kurup, centre head, Kochi, Thomas V Simon, vice-president (Human resources) and K Kesavasamy, global head (Academic interface programme) and centre head, Thiruvananthapuram.

The six regional finalists received an array of prizes from TCS ranging from backpacks, MP3 players, headphones, T-shirts and water-sippers.
