

Hindustan Times, Kolkata, September 04, 2010

TCS IT WIZ 2010

The TCS IT Wiz 2010 edition conducted and organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), received a huge response in Kolkata. The venue was packed, with over 1,100 students participating in the prelims of India's largest tech quiz for schools on Friday at the Kala Mandir.

After some tough, grueling and intense rounds of quizzing, two students of WWA Cossipore English School, Sayantan Bhattacharya and Debarghya Bose walked away with the coveted winners' trophy.

Among the others to feature in the honours list were Aviral Dasgupta and S.N. Aditya Murthy from Loyola School, Jamshedpur, as the runners-up. The Minister of Information and Technology in the state cabinet, Debesh Das, the chief guest, distributed the prizes among the winners.