Students of SBOA win quiz on info tech

IT secretary Santhosh Babu handing over the trophy to Adithya and Gokul from SBOA School and Junior College, who emerged as champions of the IT quiz in Chennai on Thursday. Also seen are Head of TCS (Chennai operations) Ravi Vishwanathan and runners- up Vishal Katariya and Rishi Rajasekaran of Bala Vidya Mandir.

NT Bureau

Chennai, Aug 20: About 1,500 students from 115 schools in Chennai took part in the city edition of the TCS IT Wiz conducted and organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) in Music Academy on Radhakrishnan Salai on Thursday.

At the end of the pulsating and en- ergy- filled 45 minutes of quizzing, R Adithya and Gokul from SBOA School and Junior College emerged as champions and got the chance to represent Chennai in the finalsm to be held in December.

Students were answering anything and everything to questions like:

How many know that Facebook logo is blue in colour just because the founder Mark Zuckerberg is colour blind?. When asked to identify the godfather of gaming, the answer came out in a jiffy --- Shigeru Miya- moto the Japanese creator.

Presenting the trophy, secretary, government of Tamilnadu, Informa- tion Technology, Santhosh Babu said he was overwhelmed by the energy and knowledge the students had.

Vishal Katariya and Rishi Rajas- ekaran from Bala Vidya Mandir were the runners-up.