

Delhi lads emerge winners in quiz

Participants at the finals of TCS IT Wiz, an inter-school quiz competition held in Chennai yesterday.

NT Bureau

Chennai, Dec 9:

Prempal Singh and Arnam Sharma of New Era Public School, Mayapuri, Delhi, emerged as winners in national finals of TCS IT Wiz, the inter-school quiz which was held here yesterday.

Aviral Dasgupta and Shubham Agarwal of Loyola School of Jamshedpur stood runners-up in the competition.

The national finals comprised 14 teams from Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Bhubhaneshwar, Chennai, Coimbatore, Delhi, Hyderabad, Indore, Kolkata, Kochi, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur and Pune. It concluded a journey with over 17,478 school students competing for regional titles across 14 cities from 113 locations in 2012.

The competition expanded its geographical footprint by adding two cities from the heart of the country, Nagpur and Indore, and made it a 14 city edition, this year. The competition reached out to over seven lakh students from 3,500 schools across the nation.

CEO and MD of Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) N Chandrasekaran gave away the prizes to winners and runners-up. He said it was inspiring to see a good display of talent and knowledge from the finalists. 'We at TCS believe in engaging and connecting with youth and help them realise their potential as they are future leaders of this nation.'