

Publication: The Indian Express – Express Newline

Date: 6.11.2012

Edition: New Delhi

Page no.: 3

Headline: New Era Public School wins IT quiz

New Era Public School wins IT quiz

NEW DELHI: The team of Prem Pal Singh and Arnav Sharma of New Era Public School won the Delhi edition of the TCS IT Wiz 2012 competition, India's biggest inter-school information technology quiz contest. Apratim Chandra Singh & Naman Dhanuka from Modern School, Barakhamba Road, finished second in the competition held in IIT-Delhi on Saturday. More than 1,200 students from the Capital and neighbouring states participated in the event open for students of Class VIII to XII, from which six teams qualified for the final round. The Delhi edition is one of the 14 regional rounds of the quiz, organised by the software major TCS every year. The winners of regional rounds will compete for the national championship in December.