

Loyola Jamshedpur triumphs in Prelims of TCS IT Wiz 2012

The TCS IT Wiz 2012, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), received an overwhelming response. Over 500 students from various city schools participated in the Calcutta edition held at Kala Mandir. In the preliminary round, after some gruelling rounds of quizzing, Subham Agarwal and Aviral Dasgupta from Loyola School, Jamshedpur, walked away with the coveted winner's trophy, along with a Galaxy Note each, closely followed by Soumyajyoti Bhattacharya and Debarun Banerjee from National Gems High School, Calcutta as runners-up, who received their trophy along with a Galaxy Tab. Chief Guest Ajoyendra Mukherjee, Executive Vice President & Head, Global HR, Tata Consultancy Services, gave away the prizes along with Sridhar Bakshi, Centre Head, TCS Calcutta. The 6 finalists who made it on stage also received gift hampers such as laptop backpacks, pen drives, coffee mugs, earphones, binoculars and t-shirts. The audience was also rewarded with haversacks, coffee mugs, pen drives and t-shirts for their correct answers. The best cheering school also received a jar of goodies and a coffee table book for their teamwork, creativity and enthusiasm. The regional rounds is being held in 14 cities - Hyderabad, Ahmedabad, Calcutta, Bangalore, Chennai, Coimbatore, Pune, Nagpur, Indore, Bhubaneswar, Kochi, Lucknow, Mumbai and Delhi. This will be followed by the National Final in December, where the winning teams from the 14 cities along with the United Arab Emirates winner will compete for the TCS IT Wiz National Champion title.
