Two city students win 'Smart Tech Wizards' 2013 contest

COIMBATORE, AUG. 26

Two city school students have emerged winners of the TCS IT Wiz - India's largest inter school IT Quiz event was organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), a leading IT services, consulting and business solutions firm.

Over 700 students from various city schools participated in the TCS IT Wiz held at Sri Krishna College here

The regional finals of Coimbatore edition witnessed some edge-of-the-seat quizzing with Naveen Krishnan & Raghul from GKD Matric Hr. Sec school trumping their closest rivals.

Anushya Prabha and Zion Philomine Antony from St. Jude's Public School - Kothagiri, became a close second in what was a fitting end to an exhilarating battle between the tech nerds. The winners walked away with an iPad each while the runners up won themselves a galaxy tablet each. The winning duo will represent Coimbatore in the Mega Finals and will contest for the title of "Smart Tech Wizard 2013"

The prizes were distributed by Mr. Ravi Viswanathan, President - Growth Markets & Head - Chennai Operations.

An interactive Twitter

contest was also organised during the quiz to engage with the students in realtime as a part of our social media outreach programme. As many as 477 tweets were recorded during the regional finals.

This year through the TCS IT Wiz, the hunt for smart Tech Wizard will be held across 14 locations across the country - Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Coimbatore, Delhi, Hyderabad, Indore, Kochi, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur and Pune. The winners of the UAE edition will also compete in this Mega finals for title.
