

Publication: HT Next – My First Newspaper

Date: 18/11/2013

Edition: New Delhi

Page No: 2

Headline: Modern School excels in quiz contest

■ Winners from Modern School, Barakhamba Road, being felicitated after the quiz contest held at Indian Institute of Technology, New Delhi

Modern School excels in quiz contest

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Modern School, Barakhamba Road, bagged the top position at a regional quiz contest attended by some 1,000 students from Delhi and NCR.

The team of Apratim Chandra Singh and Naman Dhanuka from Modern School triumphed over Abhijay Gupta and Samarth Wahal from Delhi Public School, Noida, who came a close second in an exhilarating battle between the tech nerds.

Held at the Indian Institute of Technology

(IIT), New Delhi, the TCS IT Wiz is among the popular inter-school quiz, which is organised by IT major Tata Consultancy Service as part of its educational Initiative under CSR.

The winning duo will represent New Delhi in the mega finals and will contest for the title of “Smart Tech Wizards 2013.”

Regional contests will be held at 14 locations across the country, including Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Coimbatore, New Delhi, Hyderabad, Indore, Mumbai, Kolkata, Lucknow, Kochi, Nagpur and Pune.