Delhi school wins IT quiz competition

Yogita Rao, TNN | Dec 18, 2013

MUMBAI: Modern School, Barakhamba Road from Delhi, won the IT Wizards 2013 for schools, held on December 15, 2013 at the Taj Lands End Hotel, Mumbai. The event was organised by TCS.

In the mega final, the boys from the Delhi school were composed and took well calculated risks from the very first round of the Quiz. Displaying great synergy and team work, they battled hard against the clock at a 100-minute long action packed mega finals.

It was a keenly contested battle between Chennai and Kolkata. A tie breaker that followed resulted in Chennai P S Senior Secondary School clinching the runner up title ahead of Kolkata represented by Jamshedpur.

The Delhi team walked away with most of the prizes. The runner up team also received prizes along with their trophies. This year, IT Wiz expanded its digital footprint on social media by engaging with the millennial generation across India. After every regional quiz across 14 cities, an Online Quiz was conducted on Facebook page from 5-7 pm to facilitate student participation in order to boost tech learning. The online facebook Quiz had a total of 140 questions and the winners were selected on the basis of not only correct answers but also consistent participation across all 14 regional quiz days. The competition caught the twitteratis' fancy across the country this year.
