

BUDDING IT WIZARDS

LPS team wins regional round of TCS quiz

HT Correspondent

■ reportersdesk@hindustantimes.com

LUCKNOW: Students of Lucknow Public School (LPS) sector I, bagged the first prize in TCS IT Wiz-India's inter school quiz organised by Tata Consultancy Services here at Indira Gandhi Pratishthan, Gomti Nagar on Thursday. The quiz witnessed participation of over 1200 students from various districts of Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand.

After a riveting regional final, Sachin Bansal and Abhinav Singh from Lucknow Public School (LPS), sector - I won the title, walking away with an iPad Air each, while the runners-

■ Winners of the regional round of TCS IT quiz receiving the trophy from DGP AL Banerjee and Bhatkhande V-C Shruti Sadolikar Katkar.

up Prakhar Rai and Aditya Jalan from La Martiniere College won an iPad Mini each along with an especially designed trophy and medals. The winners will represent UP and Uttarakhand in the mega finals.

The six finalists who made it to the regional round also received an array of prizes from TCS ranging from space pack, sippers, T shirts, earphones, USB pen drives, speakers and other gadgets. The best cheering school, La Martiniere College also received a jar of goodies and a coffee table book for their teamwork, creativity and enthusiasm.

The prizes were given away by guests of honour director general of police AL Banerjee, and vice chancellor of Bhatkhande Music Institute (deemed university) prof Shruti Sadolikar Katkar, along with Jayant Krishna, regional head, TCS Lucknow.