LITTLE GENIUSES

TCS (vice president and chief technology officer) K Ananthakrishnan presented iPads to the winners and mini iPads to the runners-up in the presence of TCS (new growth markets president) Ravi Viswanathan.

More than 1,200 students from Class 8 to 12 from various schools in Chennai and nearby region participated in the quiz contest. Six teams reached the regional finals after the written preliminary round. TCS also presented all the finalists with an array of prizes ranging from laptop bags, headphones, selfie sticks with Bluetooth, sippers and USB pen drives.

Regional-level contests were held at 15 cities – Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Coimbatore, Delhi, Hyderabad, Indore, Kochi, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur, Pune and Visakhapatnam. The quiz contest made its debut in Visakhapatnam this year.

The quiz primarily focused on application of technology across various sectors including environment, business, people and new trends.
