

Publication: Deccan Chronicle

Date: 27/08/2015

Page no.: 02

Headline: Kothagiri students emerge regional champs of TCS quiz

Kothagiri students emerge regional champs of TCS quiz

DC CORRESPONDENT
COIMBATORE, AUG. 25

After arduous five rounds of quizzing, J.K. Faizan and K. Sudharsana from St. Jude's Public school, Kothagiri emerged the regional winners of the TCS IT Wiz 2015 in the Coimbatore zone.

The regional champions walked away with an iPad air each.

The runners-up, M. Starath Chander and A.S. Harikrishna from G.K.D. Manje higher secondary school, Perinthanampalavayam won an iPad mini each along with a specially designed trophy and medal.

Over 812 students from various schools participated in TCS IT Wiz, India's biggest inter-school quiz, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), at corporation Kalai Arangam Resides students from Coimbatore, children from Coonoor, Erode, Kothagiri, Mettupalayam, Pollachi, Salem and Tirupur also took part.

Six finalists were short-listed after the written preliminary round and they also received an array of prizes ranging from laptop bags, headphones, selfie sticks with bluetooth, supercard USB pen drive.

The prizes were distributed by K. Krithivasan, president of the banking and financial services business unit, TCS.

TCS IT Wiz 2015 is held across 15 locations in India and it is making its debut in Visakhapatnam this year.

Students participate in TCS IT Wiz quiz competition, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) at corporation Kalai Arangam in Coimbatore. S-DC