R.N. Podar school wins TCS IT Wiz

Over 700 students from various schools across Mumbai participated in the TCS IT Wiz, an inter-school quiz, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS). The Mumbai edition held recently at the Indian Education Society, Manik Sabagraha, Opp Lilavati Hospital, in Bandra TCS IT Wiz was open to all high school students studying in classes 8-12. There was no entry fee.

After five rounds of quizzing at the Regional finals, Abhishek Muthange and Nikhil Kumar from R. N. Podar school won the title. The Regional champions this year walked away with an iPad Air each while the runners-up Avi Seth & Yash Sharma from Rajhans Vidyalaya school won an iPad mini each along with a specially designed trophy and medals. The six finalists who had made it to the regional finals after the written preliminary round also received an array of prizes from TCS ranging from laptop bags, headphone, selfie sticks with bluetooth, sipper and USB pen drives.

The prizes were distributed by the Guest of Honour, Rajesh Gopinathan, Chief Financial Officer, TCS.

To facilitate students at various locations, a live webcast of the Regional finals has been organised. The web streaming of the Regional finals can be viewed on: www.tcsitwiz.com.
