Pune: After five rounds of quizzing at the regional finals, Shiv Shakti and Ayush Singh from Army Public School (APS), Southern Command, won the Pune edition of TCS IT Wiz 2016. These winners will represent the city at the national finals in Mumbai.

Over 400 students from 50 schools participated in the Pune edition of TCS IT Wiz, organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), on November 22. The quiz was open to high school students from Std VIII to XII.

The theme of this year's quiz was 'Default is Digital'. The quiz looked into the technological trends that are poised to have huge traction across the globe.

The Regional Champions Shiv Shakti and Ayush Singh won an iPad air each while the runners-up Vaibhav Makar and Naman Dua from The Bishop's School, Camp, were rewarded an iPad mini each along with a specially-designed trophy and medals.

TCS IT Wiz 2016 is held across 15 locations in India including Bengaluru, Chennai, Coimbatore, Delhi, Hyderabad, Kochi and Mumbai. The winning team from the regional finals will contest in the mega finals held during December in Mumbai. The format of the quiz is animation-based software, which has five rounds including landing page, search engine optimisation, going viral and net worth.
