

Published Date:	19 Aug 2017	Publication:	The Times of India
Edition:	Puducherry	Page No:	2

Pondy KV 2 students ace TCS quiz

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Puducherry: A team from Kendriya Vidyalaya 2 (KV) comprising J Jayakrishnan and A Vedapuriswar, emerged as the regional champion in the interschool quiz contest, 'TCS IT Wiz', and qualified for the national-level quiz contest. The contest was organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS). KV-2, Puducherry had also won the 2016 Chennai edition.

Twelve regional teams have been selected to participate in the national-level final contest.

The KV 2 team from Puducherry overcame stiff competition from more than 620 teams in the regional-level contest and emerged victorious after five rounds of quizzing. The two members of the team were presented with ₹60,000-worth gift vouchers while the runners-up – Aditya N and Harsh Yadav from Chettinad Vidyashram, Chennai – received a gift voucher worth ₹40,000.

Consulate General of Germany in Chennai Achim Fabig presented specially-designed trophy and medals to the winners in the presence of TCS head (operations) in Chennai Suresh Raman.