

FIITJEE students bag TCS quiz title

CITY BUREAU, HYDERABAD

Students of FIIT JEE Junior College have triumphed in the Hyderabad edition of TCS IT Wiz 2017. Over 1,000 students from city and teams from Visakhapatnam and Kurnool of Andhra Pradesh have participated in the Hyderabad edition held at Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan recently. After five rounds of quizzing at the regional finals, Priyansh Shandilya and Akshay Kolli from FIITJEE Junior College won the title. They will now represent Hyderabad at the National finals which will be held in Mumbai.

The regional champions walked away with an Rs 60,000 worth gift vouchers while the runners-up represented by Syed Mohammad Hashmi and Samhith Sagar from Sri Chaitanya Junior College were rewarded with Rs 40,000 worth gift voucher along with a specially designed trophy and medals. Prof A Venugopala Reddy, Vice Chancellor, Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University- Hyderabad along with V Rajanna, vice president and regional head of TCS - Hyderabad presented the prizes to winners.

V Rajanna, regional head of TCS, Hyderabad and Prof A Venugopal Reddy, Vice Chancellor, JNTU, Hyderabad handing over the Winners Trophy.

This year, the quiz focused on four areas including automation, contextual knowledge, machine learning, and agile besides an exclusive round on TCS. The quiz platform looked into the technological trends that are poised to have huge traction across the globe. The top six teams from the written preliminary round were qualified for the regional finals. The TCS IT Wiz is being conducted across 12 cities across India - Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Indore, Nagpur, Bhubaneswar, Kochi, Delhi, Mumbai and Pune.