

Published Date:	29 Nov 2018	Publication:	Deccan Chronicle
Edition:	Coimbatore	Page No:	2
MAV/CCM:	76891.2/23.16	Circulation:	70000

Yazhini Shanmugam and Harsh Agarwal who finished as runners-up with Mr Rajesh Gopinathan at the grand finale. - DC

St. Jude's team, Kotagiri, emerge runners-up at 'TCS IT Wiz 2018'

DC CORRESPONDENT
KOTAGIRI, NOV. 28

A team of students – Yazhini Shanmugam and Harsh Agarwal from St. Jude's Public School & Junior College here, emerge runners-up in the national finals of 'TCS IT Wiz 2018' that was organised in Mumbai.

The duo received ₹1,00,000 worth e-vouchers for digital shopping, silver medals, and a trophy for the school. Rajesh Gopinathan, CEO and MD of TCS, handed over the prizes to the winning teams.

The 2018 edition of the quiz saw the participation of over 13,000 students of class eight and XII from over 1,200 schools across 12 cities, at the regional level. The maximum number of participants were students from Tier-II and Tier-III cities. The regional editions of the quiz were hosted across 12 locations including Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Delhi, Hyderabad, Indore, Kochi, Kolkata, Mumbai, Nagpur, and Pune. Giri Balasubramaniam was the quiz master.