

Article Date	Headline	Publication	Edition	Page No.	Journalist
Regional
23 Nov 2024	DPS Megacity and Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, Win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition	The Echo of India	Kolkata	11	Bureau
Online
20 Nov 2024	Students from DPS Megacity and Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, Win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition	India Education Diary	Kolkata	N/A	Bureau
20 Nov 2024	Students from DPS Megacity and Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition	The Daily Intake	Kolkata	N/A	Bureau

Regional

Published Date	23 Nov 2024	Publication	The Echo of India
Edition	Kolkata	Page No	11

DPS Megacity & Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur students win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition

EOI CORRESPONDENT

KOLKATA, NOV 22/--/Tata Consultancy

Services witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 110 students from over 30 schools at the Kolkata edition of its flagship annual quiz, TCS InQuizitive. The event was open to students from classes 8 to 12 and showcased the intellectual prowess of the city's youth.

After five intense rounds of quizzing at the regional finals held on Wednesday at the G D Birla Sabhagar, Devayudh Das, 14, from Delhi Public School Megacity emerged as the winner. Sayan Halder, 15, from Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, secured the runner-up position. The two students will now represent Kolkata in the National Finals, competing with champions from 11 other regional rounds from across India. The prizes were distributed by the Chief

Guest, Pradip Kumar Agarwal, Chief Executive Officer, Heritage Group of Institutions and Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head - Eastern Region, TCS

Mr Agarwal said, "Congratulations to TCS for their dedication in bringing together young minds and nurturing their creativity through this exceptional platform. To all the participants, I extend my best wishes for joining such commendable initiatives, and know that each participant is a winner, regardless of the results," said

Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head -Eastern Region, TCS, said, "It is a privilege to witness the bright young minds of today engage in an intellectually stimulating competition like TCS InQuizitive. Events like these not only spark curiosity and critical thinking but also foster a spirit of healthy competition among students."

Online

Publication	India Education Diary	Edition	Online Coverage
Published Date	20 Nov 2024

Students from DPS Megacity and Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, Win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition

<https://thedailyintake.online/2024/11/20/students-from-dps-megacity-and-calcutta-public-school-kalikapur-win-tcs-inquizitive-2024-kolkata-edition/>

Kolkata: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 110 students from over 30 schools at the Kolkata edition of its flagship annual quiz, TCS InQuizitive. The event was open to students from classes 8 to 12 and showcased the intellectual prowess of the city’s youth.

After five intense rounds of quizzing at the regional finals held on Wednesday at the G D Birla Sabhaghar, Devayudh Das, 14, from Delhi Public School Megacity emerged as the winner. Sayan Halder, 15, from Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, secured the runner-up position. The two students will now represent Kolkata in the National Finals, competing with champions from 11 other regional rounds from across India. The prizes were distributed by the Chief Guest, Pradip Kumar Agarwal, Chief Executive Officer, Heritage Group of Institutions and Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head –Eastern Region, TCS

Pradip Kumar Agarwal, CEO, Heritage Group of Institutions, said, “I’m delighted to note that InQuizitive was launched 25 years ago and has also gained recognition in the Limca Book of Records. Congratulations to TCS for their dedication in bringing together young minds and nurturing their creativity through this exceptional platform. To all the participants, I extend my best wishes for joining such commendable initiatives, and know that each participant is a winner, regardless of the results,” said

Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head –Eastern Region, TCS, said, “It is a privilege to witness the bright young minds of today engage in an intellectually stimulating competition like TCS InQuizitive. Events like these not only spark curiosity and critical thinking but also foster a spirit of healthy competition among students. I commend TCS for creating a platform that nurtures talent and encourages innovation among the future leaders of our nation,” said

TCS InQuizitive is an innovative learning initiative designed to enhance curiosity and awareness among students in fields such as information technology, science, sports, engineering, and art. There is no entry fee for participation.

Publication	The Daily Intake	Edition	Online Coverage
Published Date	20 Nov 2024

Students from DPS Megacity and Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, win TCS InQuizitive 2024 Kolkata Edition

<https://indiaeducationdiary.in/students-from-dps-megacity-and-calcutta-public-school-kalikapur-win-tcs-inquizitive-2024-kolkata-edition/>

TCS InQuizitive was held for high school students across 12 cities, with the aim to enhance intellectual curiosity and technology skills of the country's brightest minds

KOLKATA : Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 110 students from over 30 schools at the Kolkata edition of its flagship annual quiz, TCS InQuizitive. The event was open to students from classes 8 to 12 and showcased the intellectual prowess of the city's youth.

After five intense rounds of quizzing at the regional finals held on Wednesday at the G D Birla Sabhaghar, Devayudh Das, 14, from Delhi Public School Megacity emerged as the winner. Sayan Halder, 15, from Calcutta Public School, Kalikapur, secured the runner-up position. The two students will now represent Kolkata in the National Finals, competing with champions from 11 other regional rounds from across India. The prizes were distributed by the Chief Guest, Pradip Kumar Agarwal, Chief Executive Officer, Heritage Group of Institutions and Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head –Eastern Region, TCS

Pradip Kumar Agarwal, CEO, Heritage Group of Institutions, said, "I'm delighted to note that InQuizitive was launched 25 years ago and has also gained recognition in the Limca Book of Records. Congratulations to TCS for their dedication in bringing together young minds and nurturing their creativity through this exceptional platform. To all the participants, I extend my best wishes for joining such commendable initiatives, and know that each participant is a winner, regardless of the results," said

Manojit Sengupta, Delivery Centre Head –Eastern Region, TCS, said, "It is a privilege to witness the bright young minds of today engage in an intellectually stimulating competition like TCS InQuizitive. Events like these not only spark curiosity and critical thinking but also foster a spirit of healthy competition among students. I commend TCS for creating a platform that nurtures talent and encourages innovation among the future leaders of our nation," said

TCS InQuizitive is an innovative learning initiative designed to enhance curiosity and awareness among students in fields such as information technology, science, sports, engineering, and art. There is no entry fee for participation.